

All you ever wanted to know about DIVERSITY but were afraid to ask

Presentation and Discussion
Associate Professor Eva Strand
Department of Forest, Rangeland, and Fire Sciences
University of Idaho

Diversity is a keystone concept in ecology. Learn about definitions of diversity at the plant community and landscape scales and how it is quantified. Why is diversity important for sustaining life? What are threats to diversity and how can conservation and restoration efforts contribute to increased diversity?

Thursday September 24, 2020, 7 pm
Join us on ZOOM at
<https://uidaho.zoom.us/j/460586148>

Sponsored by the Idaho Native Plant Society
White Pine Chapter